Exploring the Role of the Teacher: Insights and Inspiration for Engaging Learning through Materials

Campbells Bay
EARLY LEARNING CENTRE

Following the outstanding success of REP's workshop "The Intentional Teacher- Using Materials to support Intentional Teaching," held on 27th July, we are thrilled to welcome Jacqui Lees back for a replay of her insightful presentation on "The Role of the Teacher." Jacqui's presentation draws on her public and very reflective dialogue with one of Reggio Emilia's most esteemed pedagogisti, Tiziana Filippini.

Playing with Clay- In this session Karen Wyatt will challenge attendees to delve deeper into their intentional teaching practices through hands-on exploration with clay.

Campbells Bay

Campbells Bay ELC, a boutique centre nestled in the heart of Campbells Bay, North Shore, will open its doors for the first time to attending teachers, offering a rare glimpse into its beautifully designed learning spaces. Architecturally crafted to inspire, these environments are where children's language, culture, and identities have flourished throughout the year. During the visit, attendees will also have the chance to view their annual Art Exhibition, showcasing their children's learning journey in a celebration of creativity and growth, with this year's centre focus on Language, Culture & Identity.
